

HUGE LIQUIDATION EVENT

Tracey's Picks

Fall is a perfect time to get your garden prepared for winter. Some chores are just plain old awful to do in the cold weather! Some chores, like driving deer netting stakes into the ground, simply cannot be completed after the ground freezes. My 'picks' for this week are all great deals on items that help you protect your gardens from deer damage! STOCK UP!

1) Liquid Fence 32 oz RTU (ready to use) bottles. Regularly priced at $15.99, and you know you need it all year long...so stock up now! The price will not be this low again! Concentrate bottles are also on sale! $10

2) Deer Netting 7ft x 100ft bag of deer netting. Easy to install and almost invisible from a distance, protect your favorite plants this fall and winter with durable, black deer netting. Regularly priced at $29.99. $15

3) Wooden Stakes & Vinyl Tree Guards Protect your newly planted trees with vinyl tree guards. Easy to install, these guards will protect the trunk from buck rub and small rodents gnawing at the bark. All size wooden stakes (for use with deer netting) now on sale! $2

4) Ornamental Grasses Plant deer resistant ornamental grasses. They put on their best show this time of year, so you will get to enjoy them in their prime...and, you won't need to spray or protect! $15
